Comments:

Knock-out Sprints

The young skiers really showed the old ones how to sprint.

This years sprint champion was Alistair Poirier-Hardy that worked his way through the qualifying heats out sprinting the 2006 Worlds Fastest Skier (speed trap provided by RCMP) Lars-Ole Valoen among others. The final heat was a battle to the line between Alistair Poirier-Hardy and Katie Weaver with Alistair just catching Katie by the line.

Race #6 February 6, 2007

Comments:

The annual Birkebeiner Race. 3 laps classic with a 3.5 kg pack (or baby king).
Amazing race with no less than 7 category winners out of 10 racers.

Next weeks race is Skiathlon so please bring both classic and skating skis. 1 lap classic and 1 lap skating in the order of your preference. Penalty loop for those of you who elect to only skate.

Place	Name	Time	Comments
1	Greg Inkster	0:47:44	The Birkebeiner Champ again (Canadian Birkebeiner Camp in the dark ages)
2	Lars-Ole Valoen	0:50:10	Enough weights in his pack for three baby kings.
3	Jean Yves	0:50:40
4	Russ Stother	0:55:22
1	Alistair Poirier-Hardy	0:50:47	Winner of the no pack classic 3 lap category
1	Bill Letham	0:42:00	Winner of the no pack classic 2 lap category
1	Jocelyn Poirier-Hardy	0:43:20	Winner of the classic 2 lap girls category
1	Sam Morris	0:47:03	Winner of the classic 2 lap boys category
1	David Kvick	0:45:37	Winner of the no poles skating 3 lap category
1	Colin Armstrong	0:54:23	Winner of the skating 3 lap category

 Race #7 February 13, 2007

Comments:
 Race # 7 was the skiathlon event with one lap classic and one lap skating. Those who choose to "skate" both laps were penalized by having to either dubble pole or skate without poles on the lap that was supposed to classic. Skating without poles turned out to be the prepered option. Many thanks for EA for helping out with the timing.

 Next weeks race is the 1500 m time trial "sprint" race.

Race #8 February 20, 2007

Comments:

1500 m individual sprints.

Next weeks race is the wiffle ball biathlon (two laps skating with a stop on each lap at the teaching grid to show off your target practice skills).

Reminder:

March 6 is the last race of the season with the wrap up party at the lodge. Tickets to the party are $10 which includes dinner and a chance to win some great prizes. Please let David know if you plan on coming to the party so that we can order the right amount of food.

Banquet Info:

Where - Hollyburn Lodge.

When - Immediately after the last race (Tuesday Mar 6).

Why - Lots of great prizes, including $400 YOKO Platin poles!

Who - All participants of the YOKO Tuesday night race series. The more races you have participated in the greater are the odds of winning prizes.
